A
 The fox went out on a chilly night
 E
 He prayed for the moon to give him light
 D
 For heâd many a mile to go that night
 A E A E A
 Before he reached the town-o, town-o, town-o
 D A E A
 Heâd many a mile to go that night, before he reached the town-o

A
 He ran til he came to the farmerâs pen
 E
 The ducks and the geese were kept therein
 A D
 He said, ãa couple of you are gonna grease my chin,
 A E A E A
 Before I leave this town-o, town-o, town-oã
 D A E A
 Said a couple of you are gonna grease my chin, before I leave this town-o

A
 He grabbed the great goose by the neck
 E
 And he threw a duck across his back
 A D
 And he didnât mind the quack, quack
 A E A E A
 And the legs all dangling down-o, down-o, down-o
 D A E A
 He didnât mind the quack, quack and the legs all dangling down-o

A
 The old grey woman jumped out of bed
 E
 Out of the window she popped her head,
 A D
 Crying John, John, the great goose is gone
 A E A E A
 And the fox is on the town-o, town-o, town-o
 D A E A
 John, John, the great goose is gone and the fox is on the town-o

A

He ran til he came to his nice warm den

E

And there were the little ones, eight, nine, ten

D

Sayin Daddy, Daddy, better go back again

E

E

A

For it must be a might fine town-o, town-o, town-o

D

E

A

Daddy, Daddy, go back again for it must be mighty fine town-o

A

The fox and his wife, without any strife

E

Cut up the goose with a fork and a knife

D

They never had such a supper in their life

E

A

E

A

And the little ones chewed on the bones-o, bones-o, bones-o

D

A

They never had such a supper in their life

E

A

And the little ones chewed on the bones
