

Title	Tiny Dancer
Artist	Elton John
Album	Madman Across the Water

Intro -x4--: C F

C F C F
 Blue jean baby, l.a. lady,
 C F F
 seamstress for the band
 C F C F
 Pretty eyed, pirate smile,
 C F G
 you'll marry a music man

F Em Am D7
 Ballerina, you must have seen her
 F Am G7
 dancing in the sand
 C F C F
 And now she's in me, always with me,
 C G F Em Dm7
 Tiny dancer in my hand

C F C F
 Jesus freaks, out in the street,
 C F G
 Handing tickets out for God
 C F C F
 Turning back, she just laughs
 C F G
 The boulevard is not that bad

F Em Am D7
 Piano man, he makes his stand
 F Am G7
 in the auditorium
 C F C F

Ab = G#
 Bb = A#
 Db = C#
 Eb = D#
 Gb = F#

Looking on, she sings the songs
                  C                                  G  F Em Dm7
The words she knows, the tune she hums

          Ab                  Bb
But oh how, it feels so real,

Gm7                                  Cm lying here, with no one near
Ab  Bb
Only you, and you can hear me
                  G                  G7
when I say softly, slowly

F          C                  Dm    C F
Hold me closer tiny dancer
                  C                  G
Count the headlights on the highway
F          C                          Dm  C F
Lay me down in sheets of linen
                  C                  G
You had a busy day today

F          C                  Dm    C F
Hold me closer tiny dancer
                  C                  G
Count the headlights on the highway
F          C                          Dm  C F
Lay me down in sheets of linen
                  C                  G  G
You had a busy day today -x3-

This arrangement for the song is the author's own work and represents their interpretation of the song. You may only use this for private study, scholarship, or research.